

The Leader

HUTCHINSON, KANSAS.

POINTER NO. 175.

When a man has nothing else to be proud of, he boasts of his enemies.

Most people have learned to expect great things of this store, but even the people who have learned to anticipate much have been taken by surprise have, been astonished by this week's unprecedented low prices, here-and its little wonder-such important events as these -such low prices as these-below-are by no means everyday occurrences here or anywhere.

LADIES' CAPES that were intended to grace the shoulders of New York's most fashionable ladies—at prices from $15 to $50.00—your choice during this Great June Sale—$2.98. If you doubt, remember you are reading the advertisement of a store that preforms its promises.

Large lots never cause our buyers to hesitate when the price is low enough to justify the purchase. The rapidity with which these napkins are dwindling away, demonstrates his wisdom and judgement.

GREAT CROWDS!

Seeking Great Bargains at the Docherty Kramer & Thompson Fire Sale.

On Monday morning last a great crowd gathered in front of Docherty, Kramer & Thompson's store eagerly waiting the time for the opening of the fire sale—promptly at nine o'clock the doors were opened when the eager bargain-seekers made a rush for the many bargains, and well were they repaid, such bargains never have been placed before our people—the crowd has kept up the rush—each day—as new bargains are placed on the counters, some goods only wet, others soiled, as rapidly as they dry, they are placed on sale. We noticed such bargains as these:

Yard wide muslin, at 3c yd.
Best calicoes, at 3c yd.
Towelings, at 3c yd.
Shirting gingham 2 1/2c yd.
Dress goods at 8c yd.
Yard wide bleached muslin, at 5c yd.
Best thread, at 1c spool.
Men's socks at 3c pair.
Ladies' hose at 4c pair.
Handkerchiefs at 1c each.
Ladies' vests, at 4c each.
And so many more equally as cheap it would take our entire paper to publish them. We would advise you to go there for your dry goods, notions and millinery.

Lovers of the perfect horse should not fail to see the Great Wallace Shows. They will find it a feast for the eyes.

Another Victim to the Gold quincee

Last Monday the store of J. M. Brehm was closed on a chattel mortgage of $8,000 in favor of the Hutchinson Wholesale Grocery, Hutchinson Milling Company, The First National Bank and several other small creditors. B. G. Horton was placed in charge of the stock and the store is open pending a settlement. Mr. Brehm has conducted one of the largest enterprises of the kind in the city and even his competitors all sympathize with him and hope he may be able to resume business.

Band of Musical Artists.

"Two of the many features of the Great Wallace Shows," says the Terre Haute Gazette, "are the races and Prof. Goetze's band of 45 pieces, whose rendition of classical overtures has delighted thousands." There have been bands and bands but never one so famous in the circus business as this one. All lovers of classical music should go early and enjoy the concert of this company of artists.

every element dear to the tobacco chewer is so skillfully concentrated and blended as to make the most delicious chewing tobacco ever put on the market. Try it and you're sure to catch the idea.

It's Lorillard's.
